UNITED.

Suggested by Jean Ingelow's poem, "Divided."

BY [????]

In the bosom of the mountains
Rose two sparkling little fountains,
Where the breeze with wild flowers wantons
In the blooming month of May.
Far apart they were and lonely,
Still they sang but one song only,
And the sweetness of their tone lay
On the brooks that rolled away.

O'er the one, there hung a daisy,
From a crag whose height was crazy,
In the wind half bright and lazy,
Swinging by a single root.
But the storm rose in its splendor,
And the daisy's root so slender,
Broke from its silken ties so tender
Down the swollen brook to shoot.

O'er the other's brink so mossy,
With his brilliant coat so glossy,
That the wind gave ne'er a toss he
Did not spurn with conscious pride,
Leaned a blue-bell, wild and blooming,—
All the graceful airs assuming,
Of a male bird when he's pluming,
Ere he goes to woo his bride.

But, the fountain bubbling under,
Tore his mossy ties asunder,
Sent him down the brook to wander,
To a new home on its brink;
And away he floated sadly
While the birds were singing gladly,
And the waves were plunging madly,
As they gave the earth to drink.

And he passed the dangerous rapid,
In the ravine dark and vapid,
Where the waves with white o'er lapped,
Threw their foam about his crest;
And he floated down the valley,
Where the flowers with sunlight dally,
And the birds meet musically,
Ere, at night, they go to rest.

But they've left the brooks forever—
Ah! 'tis thus all ties we sever,
As we reach the mighty river,
That flows onward to the main,
And we leave regrets behind us;
For their memories only bind us
To the thoughts that ever blind us,
With the tears of Sorrow's pain.

And meanwhile, the tender daisy,
Having passed her dangers easy,
Now is lying still and lazy
In the current by his side;
And the blue-bell nods his bonnet,
Smiles and lisps a tender sonnet,
Pledges love and faith upon it;
And thus wins her for his bride.

Onward now they float together,
Through both bright and gloomy weather,
By the blooming fields of heather,
To an Island's mossy base—
Where the birds are singing lightly,
And the sun is shining brightly,
And the moon is beaming nightly,
With a glory in her face.

Flow, flow on, O glorious river!
Let thy waters flow forever,
And thy many voices never
Bring their sadness back to me—
Let thy waves, in graceful motion,
Flowing onward to the ocean,
Bear with them each sad emotion,
On their bosom, to the sea.

HOW THE SOLDIERS ARE GOING.

We have never believed that the soldiers could be induced to support Geary. They know that he is indebted to the Philadelphia Inquirer for his Military reputation such as it is. They know that he professed to be "a life-long Democrat," until he was offered the nomination of the Republican party by Simon Cameron and John W. Forney. They know that when he became the tool of these corrupt and intriguing politicians, he was ready to do their bidding. They know that he has openly declared that he endorses the acts and the speeches of Thad Stevens.—Knowing these things, no right thinking man among the returned soldiers will vote for Geary. All over the State they are arraying themselves with the Democratic party in support of President Johnson's policy, and in open opposition to the radical disunionists and their bogus Military candidate for Governor.

Wherever the attempt has been made to get up clubs among the soldiers pledged to the support of Hiester Clymer and President Johnson's policy, the returned veterans have responded most heartily and enthusiastically. In York several hundred rallied at once to a call of that kind. In Mifflin county a Clymer Club has been organized among the soldiers, which already numbers a large proportion of that class among its members. The Perry county Democrat comes to us this week with a call for a Soldiers' Democratic County Convention, signed by some hundreds of bona fide veterans. On the other hand the soldiers fail to respond to calls from the supporters of Geary. We had an instance of their aversion to him and his party in the recent convention held in this county. The meeting was ridiculously small. In Mifflin county a similar meeting was an absolute failure, so much so that they had to choose a civilian to preside. In Perry county less than a dozen responded to the loudest kind of a call from the leaders of the Radical Disunion party.

So it will be throughout the entire State of Pennsylvania. The soldiers do not believe that they fought through the war in vain. They did battle for the sacred cause of the Union, and justly regard it as an insult to be asked to support a political party which boldly avows its intention of preventing a restoration of the Union until the negroes are allowed to vote and made in all respects the equal of the white race. The soldiers will stand by President Johnson and will support his wise and statesman like policy. They cannot be gulled into endorsing the infamous schemes of such avowed disunionists and negro worshippers as Thad. Stevens and Charles Sumner. They know that Geary is only a miserable tool in the hands of the Stevens faction in this State, and knowing this they will repudiate him with scorn and contempt. The soldiers, in the language of a brave private, "will vote as they shot, for the Union and not for the negro.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

WHEN is a man thinner than a lath? When he's a shavin'.

THE COLORADO BILL.

THE PRESIDENT'S VETO.

To the Senate of the United States:

I return to the Senate, in which it originated, the bill which has passed both Houses of Congress, entitled "An act for the admisssion of the State of Colorado into the Union," with my objection to its becoming a law at this time.

First. From the best information which I have been able to obtain, I do not consider the establishment of a State government at present necessary for the welfare of the people of Colorado. Under the existing Territorial government all the rights, privileges, and interests of the citizens are protected and secured. The qualified voters choose their own legislators and their own local officers, and are represented in Congress by a delegate of their own selection. They make and execute their own municipal laws, subject only to revision of Congress, an authority not likely to be exercised, unless in extreme or extraordinary cases. The population is small, some estimating it so low as twenty-five thousand, while advocates of the bill reckon the number at from thirty-five thousand to forty thousand souls. The people are principally recent settlers, many of whom are understood to be ready for removal to other mining districs beyond the limits of the Territory, if circumstances shall render them more inviting. Such a population cannot but find relief from excessive taxation if the Territorial system which devolves the expense of the executive, legislative and judicial departments upon the United States, is for the present continued. They cannot but find the security of person and property increased by their reliance upon the national executive power for the maintenance of law and order against the disturbances necessarily incident to all newly organized communities.

Second. It is not satisfactorily established that a majority of the citizens of Colorado desire or are prepared for an exchange of a Territorial for a State government.

In September, 1864, under the authority of Congress, an election was lawfully appointed and held for the purpose of ascertaining the views of the people upon that particular question. Six thousand one hundred and ninety-two votes were cast, and of this number a majority of three thousand one hundred and fifty-two was given against the proposed change. In September, 1865, without any legal authority, the question was again presented to the people of the Territory, with the view of obtaining a reconsideration of the result of the election held in compliance with the act of Congress approved March 21, 1864. At this second election five thousand nine hundred and five votes were polled, and a majority of one hundred and fifty five was given in favor of State organization. It does not seem to me entirely safe to receive this last mentioned result, so irregularly obtained, as sufficient to outweigh the one which had been legally obtained in the first election. Regularity and conformity to law are essential to the preservation of order and stable government, and should, as far as practicable, always be observed in the formation of new States.

Third. The admission of Colorado, at this time, as a State into the Federal Union, appears to me to be incompatible with the public interests of the country. While it is desired that Territories sufficiently matured should be organized as States, yet the spirit of the Constitution seems to require that there should be an approximation towards equality among the several States comprising the Union. No State can have more than two Senators in Congress: the largest State has a population of four millions, several of the States have a population exceeding two millions, and many others have a population exceeding one million.

A population of 127,000 is the ratio of apportionment of representatives among the several States. If this bill should become a law, the people of Colorado, thirty thousand in number, would have in the House of Representatives one member, while New York, with a population of four millions has but thirty-one. Colorado would have in the electoral college three votes, while New York has only thirty three. Colorado would have in the Senate two votes, while New York has no more.

Inequalities of this character have already occurred, but it is believed that none have happened where the inequality was so great. When such inequality has been allowed, Congress is supposed to have permitted it on the ground of some high public necessity, and under circumstances which promised that it would rapidly disappear through the growth and development of the newly admitted State. Thus, in regard to the several States in what was formerly called the "Northwest Territory," lying east of the Mississippi, their rapid advancement in population rendered it certain that States admitted with only one or two Representatives in Congress would in a very short period be entitled to a great increase of representation. So when California was admitted on the ground of commercial and political exigencies, it was well foreseen that that State was destined rapidly to become a great prosperous mining and commercial community. In the case of Colorado, I am not aware that any national exigency, either of a political or commercial nature, requires a departure from the law of equality, which has been so generally adhered to in our history.

If information submitted in connection with this bill is reliable, Colorado instead of increasing has decreased in population. At an election for members of a Territorial Legislature held in 1861, 10,580 votes were cast. At the election before mentioned, in 1864, the number of votes cast was 6,192; while at the irregular election held in 1865, which is assumed as a basis for legislative action at this time, the aggregate of votes was 5,005. Sincerely anxious for the welfare and prosperity of every Territory and State, as well as for the prosperity and welfare of the whole Union, I regret this apparent decline of population in Colorado, but it is manifest that it is due to emigration, which is going out from that territory to other regions within the United States, which either are in fact or are believed by the inhabitants of Colorado to be richer in mineral wealth and agricultural resources. If, however, Colorado has not really declined in population, another census of another election under the authority of Congress would place the question beyond doubt, and cause but little delay in the ultimate admission of the Territory as a State, if desired by the people. The tenor of these objections furnishes the reply which may be expected to an argument in favor of the measure, derived from the enabling act which was passed by Congress on the 21st day of March, 1864. Although Congress then supposed that the condition of the Territory was such as to warrant its admission as a State, the result of two years' experience shows that every reason which existed for the institution of a Territorial instead of a State Government in Colorado, at its first organization, still continues in force.

The condition of the Union at the present moment is calculated to inspire caution in regard to the admission of new States. Eleven of the old States have been for some time, and still remain, unrepresented in Congress. It is a common interest of all the States, as well those represented as those unrepresented, that the integrity and harmony of the Union should be restored as completely as possible, so that all those who are expected to bear the burthens of the Federal Government shall be consulted concerning the admission of new States, and that in the meantime no new State shall be prematurely and unnecessarily admitted to a participation in the political power which the Federal Government wields—not for the benefit of any individual State or section, but for the common safety, welfare and happiness of the whole country.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

Washington, D. C., May 15, 1866.

SOME of the New York papers have a dispatch from Washington stating that the government will lose heavily by the operations of speculators in cotton at Memphis, Tennessee. Last summer $400,000 in government funds were placed in the hands of a certain party, which were used up in the purchases of cotton. The cotton was sent forth for sale, and before the government realized anything at all from the transaction, the consignees failed and the government lost the whole amount—principal as well as prospective profits.

WHILE the war was going on and the Disunion Abolitionists were gathering fortunes to themselves out of the necessities of the Government, their cry to the Southern people was—"You shall come into the Union!" Now since the cessation of war has stopped the plunder supplies, their cry has changed to—"You shan't come into the Union!" Ain't they a nice set of fellows to rule a free and intelligent people and to make laws for them?

"DER VETO."—One of our german fellow citizens, says the Elmira Gazette, got agitated on the President's veto message, the other day, and thus relieved himself: "I dinks der Bresident is right. Dese eight years and petter, haf I gebt house, and nefer hat a pureau in mine blace yet, and I got along shuss as good as if I hat one. Now dey wants all de golored beoples to haf a pureau and dax de poor white beople to pay for him. I stands by der Bresident."

IT is reported upon good authority, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Times, that the judiciary committee have come to the conclusion that the evidence produced before them does not warrant the charge that Jefferson Davis is guilty of complicity in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln.

AN editor declaims against the immodesty of tilting hoops, inasmuch as they expose too much of the extremities of the ladies who wear them, and then exclaims:—"We grieve for the good old days of Adam and Eve." We don't think that the wardrobe which Adam and Eve started life with would be much of an improvement on tilting hoops.

From the Genius of Liberty.

JOHN W. GEARY AND THE SOLDIERS OF THE MEXICAN WAR.

Read! Read!! Read!!!

John W. Geary, the candidate of the Radical Abolitionists for Governor of Pennsylvania, was elected Lieutenant Col. of the 2d Pa. Regiment of volunteers in the war with Mexico, upon the organization of that Regiment in the City of Pittsburg. William B. Roberts, of this county, was the Colonel commanding and died in the city of Mexico. After his death, Geary was promoted to the Colonelcy. The Fayette Volunteers were attached to this Regiment, and known as Co. H. They distinguished themselves for gallant conduct and intrepid bravery in all the important engagements from Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico, including the bloody assaults upon the gates of that city. They continued in service until the end of the war, and were honorably discharged. The survivors, upon their return home, were received with well earned and highly distinguished honors by their fellow citizens. Here at the County Seat, they were honored by a splendid reception, participated in by the citizens of the county generally, as well as by the ladies, who greeted their return with all that delicate attention and refined taste peculiar to their sex. At Connellsville, also, they were the recipients of a handsome ovation, the heartfelt tribute of the citizens and ladies of that place and vicinity. The reception at Connellsville took place on Saturday, July 15th, 1848. The reception speech was made by Dr. James C. Cummings, and the response by Sergeant Peter A. Johns. After the delivery of the speeches, and partaking an elegant dinner prepared for the occasion, the returned soldiers met together and unanimously adopted, a preamble and series of resolutions, which show up the character of John W. Geary in such a light as would render his election as Governor an ever-lasting disgrace to the State of Pennsylvania.—These resolutions, it will be seen, were unanimously adopted by true and tried soldiers, by men who knew Geary well, and by men who did not hesitate to proclaim their estimate of his character, and that too not in tender, dainty sentences, but in well expressed and forcible language. The testimony of these proceedings, gains additional force from the fact that it was uttered at such a time and under such circumstances as to exempt it entirely from any imputation of political influences. The proceedings were published in the papers of this county, by request of the soldiers, on the 27th of July, 1848, and here they are. Again we say, read, read, read.

The following preamble and Resolutions were offered by the returned volunteers, of Company H, 2d Pennsylvania Regiment, and unanimously adopted by the meeting:

WHEREAS, The discharge and arrival home of the remaining members of the Fayette Volunteers has again placed them in the position of citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and enable them to speak and assert their rights, they now embrace this occasion, the first opportunity since their return, to express their deep and abiding indignation at the conduct of John W. Geary, since he was elected to the command of the 2d Pennsylvania Regiment, at the City of Mexico. The said John W. Geary procured his election by a mere plurality of votes, by Falsehood and Deception while he was promising to give Company H the privilege of electing their own officers, according to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, he, the said Geary, bargained with others for votes promising and giving appointments in said company H to men from other companies who might answer his peculiar purposes. The laws of Congress of the 13th of May, 1847, calling for Volunteers for the war with Mexico, has this provision:

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, that the said Volunteers so offering their services shall be accepted by the President, in companies, battalions, squadrons and regiments, whose officers shall be appointed in the manner prescribed by law in the several States and territories to which such companies, battalions, squadrons and regiment shall respectively belong.

The said Geary, while he availed himself of this law to get himself into a high office, refused the same right to company H, which legally and properly belonged to them. Therefore,

Resolved, That we, the remaining members of the Fayette County Volunteers, view the conduct of the said John W. Geary towards company H as an outrage upon their just rights, as secured to them by the laws of Pennsylvania as well as the laws of Congress. The whole course and conduct of the said Geary being inconsistent with the character of a Gentleman or man of honor—it was treating us as a set of men who did not know their rights, and who could not appreciate them—it was corrupt and mercenary in all its bearings, characteristic of a low and grovelin creature, hunting and seeking popularity for courage and patriotism that he never earned, by bargaining with supple tools and mercenaries, one of whom at least was a notorious blackleg.

Resolved, That the arrest and trial of 1st Sergeant John A. Cummings, by a Court Martial, for daring to assert his rights and those of his company, was a base and cowardly exercise of usurped authority on the part of the said John W. Geary—after he, the said Geary, had surreptitiously suppressed the order of the Adjutant Gen. of this State, (issued by direction of Governor Shunk,) directing him to fill all vacancies in the 2nd Regiment of Pa. Volunteers by election—taking advantage of his stolen authority to cover up his worse than base motives, and to injure the hard earned fame of a brave and gallant officer.

On motion of Peter A. Johns, it was Resolved, That all the harm we wish Col. Geary, is that his disgrace may follow him through all the lanes and avenues of life, and that he may never die or get old.

HOW YANKEES TREAT NEGROES.

The correspondent of the New York Herald, who is traveling with Generals Steedman and Fullerton, continues to expose the peculation and oppression which characterises the conduct of such Northern men as have undertaken to cultivate plantations in the South. He says:

In nine cases out of ten where we have come across a plantation poorly cultivated, the negroes hardly worked and miserably fed, that plantation has been leased for a year or two by a man from Massachusetts.

We met with a marked case of this kind on Wadmalaw Island. Driving over a plantation we halted at a store round which a group of forty or fifty squalid negroes were gathered, receiving their day's wages. There were no contracts on this farm. The hands were engaged from day to day at fifty cents a "task." The storekeeper was paying them when we came up, and was giving them, not money, but tickets for provisions. He explained that he often had no money wherewith to pay them, so he gave them their earnings in goods. We inquired the prices at which the stores were sold. We found that corn, which sells in Charleston market at a dollar and thirty cents a bushel, and is worth in Wadmalaw Island, with transportation added, certainly less than a dollar and fifty cents, was being deled out to them at three dollars a bushel. Twenty-five cents was charged for a package containing twenty-two biscuits, such as might be bought in New York three for a cent, and everything else was in proportion. Should there be anything still due to the negroes, after they had purchased the necessary meal and bacon, there were beads and cheap jewelry—sure to attract the negro's eye—displayed in the store to absorb the balance of his earnings. Thus, while they were apparently paid fair wages for their work, more than half their earnings were every day taken back from them in the shape of profit on the goods in which they were paid in lieu of money. Gen. Steedman asked who leased the plantation. He was told Mr. Underwood, of Boston. This Mr. Underwood does not reside on the plantation. It is managed by his storekeeper (also a Northerner,) with the assistance of a resident, to whom five hundred dollars a year is paid for his advice. The poor creatures employed on the farm gathered round Gen. Steedman and bitterly complained that their day's work barely sufficed to provide for them more than their day's provisions. It was evident that as things are going on, when winter comes they will be left penniless and starving.

On Edisto Island we came across a similar case, in which another Northerner was involved. Some negroes commenced the cultivation of an unoccupied plantation. In March last up came a New York Dutchman and told them he had leased the farm, and they must contract with him. They replied, reasonably enough, that if he desired to contract with them he ought to have done so in January, before they had commenced to lay down their crops. The man went away, and the freedmen resumed their work and toiled early and late for their own benefit as they supposed. A day or two since, when they were hoeing their cotton and when any cessation of labor would destroy all their prospects, up came this same Dutchman, bringing with him six or seven negro soldiers, and compelled the freedmen, at the point of the bayonet, to sign a contract to give him one-third of their cotton and pay him an exorbitant rent for the cabins in which they lived. The contract signed, the Dutchman went away, leaving them no copy of the document, and giving them no proof that the plantation had ever been restored to its former owner or that he had leased it.

FITZ.

"Down with the accursed institution!" "Away with the 'relic of barbarism!'" "The curse and sin of Slavery must be removed!" Such was the chorus of the yelping hounds unkenneled from the infidel pulpits of New England, until civil war abolished the institution of Southern Slavery. Oh! how they whined about humanity, how they prated about philanthropy, how they preached anti-slavery Christianity! The poor oppressed Negro; the overseer's lash, the auctioneer's hammer, the blood-hounds' bay; these were their texts, the burden of their songs, the subjects of their prayers or the objects of their maledictions. How the gullible noodles who pinned their faith to the skirts of these pious philanthropists, shrank from the very mention of the name of slavery! How the men groaned as they listened to the recital of Sambo's wrongs! How the women wept as they heard the story of Dinah's sale upon the auction-block! Oh! it was pitiful, it was sad beyond expression, it was horrible above all that could be conceived of crime, that the poor Negro, 'a man and a brother,' should be doomed to pine in the chains of Southern Slavery. The Rev. Mr. Fitz told his congregation so from time to time. The Rev. Mr. Fitz said so in the annual meeting of the Boston Anti-Slavery Society. The Rev. Mr. Fitz repeated it in a hundred stump speeches delivered in the disguise of lectures. So slavery was abolished, the Freedmen's Bureau was erected, and the great christian philanthropist, the Rev. Mr. Fitz, was made a Superintendent of the Freedmen in the State of North Carolina. Hail, glorious Freedom! No more hard work for poor old Ned! No more lash for lazy young Bill! No more auction-block for lovely Dinah! No more bloodhound for swamp-fox Sam! Every thing goes "merry as a marriage bell." But by and by, President Johnson, meddlesome man, sends two fellows with stars on their shoulders, Steedman and Fullerton by name, to inquire into the condition of Bro. Fitz' portion of the Negro vineyard. Alas and alack! not a freedman did Steedman and Fullerton find within the bounds of Fitz' jurisdiction—not a single freedman, but lots of slaves! Negroes hung up by the wrists; negroes shut up in prison whilst their wives and children were dying from small-pox; negroes compelled to burry their children in the cradles, in which they died; and to cap the climax negro children, inoffensive little picaninnies, thrown into dungeons for playing in the streets on the Sabbath! And all this by order of the distinguished apostle of the new dispensation of African liberty, the great New England humanitarian, the Rev. Mr. Fitz. But what boots it to multiply words? We can only ask the negrophilists which system of slavery they prefer, that which was lately abolished by the Rev. Mr. Fitz and his friends, or that which they have erected in its stead.

THE "BOYS IN BLUE."

York, Cumberland and Perry in Line!

THE HERO OF THE HARPER'S FERRY SPITTOON REPUDIATED!

The Soldiers can't Stand Negro Suffrage!

A few days ago the soldiers of York county met in convention, nearly three hundred in number, and passed resolutions in favor of Clymer and the White Man's party. The soldiers of Cumberland followed and elected five delegates to the Geary Pittsburg Convention, but instructed them to vote for Clymer, by a vote of 132 to 21. Cumberland is Geary's adopted county and his repudiation by the soldiers of his own home, is a blow that will tell upon his prospects all over the State. And now, to make matters still worse for the hero who captured the Harper's Ferry spittoon, the soldiers of Perry County, two hundred and fifty-six in number, with Major Robinson, Capt. D. L. Tressler, Capt. B. F. Miller and other distinguished officers at their head, have formed themselves into a "Clymer Club," declaring that they cannot support Geary because he belongs to the Negro Suffrage party, led by Thaddeus Stevens and other Disunionists. The following, among other resolutions, was adopted by the Perry county boys:

Resolved, That as white soldiers we cannot support any party which favors negro suffrage and negro equality—that refuses to admit new territories while the word white remains in the declaration of qualification of voters—which sympathizes with negro interests in preference to the cause of the poor of our own color—which wastes all its time in providing for the freedmen and cannot be induced to equalize our bounties; and believing that John W. Geary, the Radical candidate for Governor, is a follower of Thad. Stevens, and is fully committed to the cause of the Disunionists in Congress, and is the enemy of the conciliatory policy of the President, we cannot and will not support him at the polls. We call upon our fellow soldiers everywhere to remember that the party that Geary is a candidate of has repeatedly declared in Congress, through its press and on the stump, that the war could not have been ended but for the bravery and assistance of the blacks, giving to the negro the credit which alone was merited by our white soldiers.

EVERY township should have a club of twenty or thirty copies of the "Campaign Climber" circulated among its people. Will not some of our friends take contributions for the "Climber" at the coming Delegate Elections?

THE SLAVERY OF THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

Where is Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe? The country needs another "Uncle Tom's Cabin." To be sure, Legree is dead; (he was hung by the Confederates as a spy); Topsy, too, has been taught by a Yankee "school-marm" to know where she came from and she doesn't "spect" any more that she growed;" and Uncle Tom's descendants are free to starve, or to die by any other process. But then the Rev. Mr. Fitz, Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau, has taken the place of Legree; and Topsy's saddle-colored offspring (Capt. ——, Agent of the Bureau, knows best how that "growed)" is quite as good a subject for Mrs. Stowe's pathos as her maternal ancestor; whilst Uncle Ned, hung up by the wrists by order of the aforesaid Rev. Mr. Fitz, answered just as good a purpose as did his much lamented cousin, Uncle Tom. We would call the special attention of Mrs. Stowe and the writers for the New England Magazines, to this fine field of romance opened up by the philanthropy of the Freedmen's Bureau. A dozen of novels founded on facts, might be worked up from the report of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton. For instance the following extract from that report, might be made the basis of a second Uncle Tom's Cabin:

"Among many acts of cruelty committed by Superintendent Fitz, we found that he had, in two instances, suspended freedmen with cords around their wrists, with their feet not touching the floor, and kept them in this position, in one case four and in the other case six hours!"

Shades of Legree and of all the slave-drivers that ever cracked a whip! Here is an opening for enterprising writers of pathetic books! Here is a fountain from which can be drawn a sea of tears! In short and in fact here is an opportunity to give the people who sympathize with the poor negro—Fitz!

BERLIN, Somerset co., sends us a list of fifty-five subscribers for the "Climber." What township in Bedford county can beat this?

DEATH OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

The sudden demise of Lieut. Gen. Scott, has cast a gloom over the country which will not soon be dissipated. Gen. Scott's name is deeply interwoven with the history of the country and is dear to every man, woman and child who loves American Liberty. He has lived to a good old age, and is gathered to his fathers in the ripeness of his time. Peace to his ashes!

TWO PHUNNY PHELLOWS.

The Patriot & Union says that Clymer is already at the top round of the ladder of popularity and asks us what more there is to "climb?" The Hollidaysburg Standard thinks this is a poser. We might with the same propriety ask, what use is there in having any more Patriots, or any more Unions, or any more Standards, since every body considers himself a patriot, a Union man and a standard citizen. But, seriously speaking, we fear our friends of the Patriot & Union and the Standard will find, as usual, quite as much Abolitionism to "climb" in Blair and Dauphin counties as will be agreeable to their taste. Sharpen your claws, boys!

SERIOUS apprehension (says an exchange) of a general European war has been created by the announcement, recently made by Louis Napoleon, that he detests the treaties of 1815. This declaration is supposed to imply, in connection with various significant occurrences, his intention to encourage the outbreak between Prussia and Austria, and (while Victor Emmanuel is striving to gain the Quadrilateral) to extend the frontiers of France to the Rhine. The Empire is at this moment believed to typify war, not peace.—Some writers allege that a few months hence Europe will resound with the tread of a million of men under arms.

BE CAREFUL! The Disunionists in this county always base their hopes of a reduced Democratic majority, upon dissatisfaction engendered by the Democratic county nominations. We know that there is not a man who is announced as a candidate before the coming Democratic County Convention who would willingly minister to the gratification of the wishes of our political opponents. But ungarded words and too zealous partizanship, frequently result in heart-burnings and personal estrangement Be on your guard, friends! If you are to be nominated you should be able to unite the party in your support, and to do this thoroughly and with the proper spirit, you must treat your fellow candidates fairly, kindly and generously.

GEARY has been asked by the Philadelphia Daily News to repudiate the platform adopted by the Disunion State Convention which nominated him. That platform endorses Congress, and, in so doing, sustains the efforts of that body to force Negro Suffrage upon the District of Columbia. But the hero of Harper's Ferry, is mute, and continues to stand upon the Congress-Negro Suffrage platform. Therefore, the Daily News and a number of other "Republican" papers in the State, refuse to support him. Geary must repudiate Negro Suffrage, or he will be beaten at least 50,000.

EVERY third "Republican" you meet professes to be opposed to Negro Suffrage. So far so good. Now, who is the representative of the Negro Suffrage party in Pennsylvania? Who will be supported by Thaddeus Stevens, Wm. D. Kelley, John M. Broomall and the balance of the Negro Suffrage Congressmen, for Governor of Pennsylvania? The answer is, without the shadow of a doubt, John W. Geary. How, then, can those "Republicans" who are opposed to Negro Suffrage, vote for Geary for Governor?

We have been asked whether "The Climber" will be a reprint of the GAZETTE. We answer, not wholly so. It will contain much original matter, and will be illustrated with cuts and ungravings which alone will be worth more than the subscription price.

WE call the attention of the reader to the President's message vetoing the bill for the admission of Colorado as a state of the Union. The message will be found on our outside. It proves conclusively that Colorado is not at present entitled to admission.

BEFORE any 'Republican' who claims to vote intelligently, makes up his mind to cast his ballot for John W. Geary, we ask him to read and consider the resolutions of the Fayette county soldiers commanded by Geary in the Mexican War. Those resolutions will be found on our first page.

MORE TREASON.—The New Lisbon (O.) Buckeye State, a Republican paper, closing an article on the political situation, says: 'Oh, that the hand of Booth had been paralyzed, and the heart of Abzerot more firm." Abzerot was the man who was charged with intending to kill Johnson.

A SEVERE PARODY.—In a recent address to the "unterrified," at Tammany Hall, Captain Rynders, referring in his peculiar and sarcastic manner to the Disunion party, said its motto was from Pope, and was:

"Honor and shame from no condition rise,
Steal all you can, there all the profit lies.

MODERN patriotism is a queer thing. For instance, that eminent lover of his country, H. Greeley, said as recently as 1860: "All nations have their superstitions, and that of our people is the Constitution."

INVASION OF CANADA BY FENIANS.

CAPTURE OF FORT ERIE.

LARGE BODIES OF MEN AND MUNITIONS OF WAR EN ROUTE.

Federal Troops In Motion.

BUFFALO, June 1.—The reporters of the Express have just returned from a point one and a half miles below Lower Black Rock. The head of the Fenian Column, 600 strong, had reached that point with their army train of nine wagons loaded with ammunition. They declare they will effect a crossing before daylight.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., June 1.—Three hundred Fenians arrived here this morning.

CINCINNATI, June 1.—A dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, says that 45,000 rounds of ammunition were shipped from that place to New York, 150,000 to Chicago, and 30,000 muskets to Buffalo, within a few days. These arms, it is reported, are for the Fenians.

NEW YORK, June 1.—It is reported that Fort Erie, in Canada, opposite Buffalo, was captured by Fenians today. They are said to be 3,000 strong; 2,000 of them are said to be marching unopposed into the interior, and have already cut one telegraph line.

BOSTON, June 1.—Two companies of U. S. Regulars left this morning for St. Albans. An additional force of 100 Fenians also left, it is supposed, for the Canadian border. One thousand five hundred men is the alleged quota of Massachusetts for the present enterprise.

BUFFALO, June 1.—Notwithstanding the vigilance of the authorities in this region, the U. S. steamer Michigan being under steam and having her ports open, and in fact the city swarming with Canadian spies, several regiments of Fenians crossed over into Canada last night, including troops from Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana, a regiment from Ohio and a regiment from this city. At this point they crossed in canal boats drawn by tugs, and when nearing the Canadian side they sent up a wild Irish cheer, with the green flag flying.

Col. O'Neill, of the 13th regiment, of Nashville, is in command at Fort Erie. Large numbers of persons are viewing the sight from this shore.

The Fenians say that no depredations shall be permitted.

All the telegraph wires to Canada are cut on the Canadian side, except those via the suspension bridge.

BOSTON, June 1.—The two companies of regulars who left for the North this morning were from Fort Warren, and are commanded by Col. Livingston.

The newly raised Fenian cavalry regiment, under the command of Col. J. Icontoe, late of Moseby's guerrillas, is part of the expedition from this city.

Gen. Fitz Hugh Lee will command the cavalry wing of their army of invasion.

BOSTON, June 1.—In addition to the Fenian cavalry regiment, the Third Fenian infantry, Col. Conner, 1,200 strong, has left here for the Canada border. The transportation for the cavalry regiment was paid through to St. Albans by a citizen of Boston.

Detachments of United States troops from Forts Warren and Independence, also from Fort Preble are under orders to leave for the northern frontier.

BUFFALO, June 1.—Railroad officials from Fort Erie report that the Fenians had torn up the track in several places, burned down some buildings back of the village, and are seizing all the horses within their reach. They have taken twenty-five or thirty prisoners, but these were released on parole after a few hours' detention. At 12 o'clock, the Fenians started down the river toward Chippewa. All communication with Canada is now cut off at this point. The United States steamer Michigan has been stationed opposite Fort Erie and commands the river.

The agent of the Associated Press has returned from an interview with a prominent Centre, who says that from 1,500 to 3,000 men have effected a landing in Canada from this point, and are hourly receiving accessions in Canada and from this shore.

They are well armed, and have six pieces of artillery. It is said to be a general descent along the whole frontier, and the Fenians have as many as thirteen batteries of artillery in Canada.

LATER.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The Herald contains the following account:

BUFFALO, June 2—7 P. M.—An eye-witness of the engagement near Bridgeway says the Fenians were one thousand strong, under O'Neill, and had reached a small village about ten miles from Waterloo Ferry when their scouts announced the approach of a large force of Canadian volunteers.—The Fenians tore down a fence and went into an adjoining field and formed in line of battle, Gen. O'Neill being assisted by Colonels Starr and O'Brien in making a disposition of the troops. The volunteers advanced upon the Fenians, and the action commenced, the skirmishers on either side exchanging a brisk fire. The order was then given for the Fenian skirmishers to fall back to the main body. Both parties fired several rounds when the Fenians advanced on the double quick with fixed bayonets, but as the Canadians were pressed in an orchard on either side of a swamp, and were separated from the Fenians by a thick brushwood, O'Neil deemed a charge useless and gave the order to halt and fall back. The Canadians believing this a retreat advanced from their shelter on a run, but were met by the Fenians with a counter charge and were instantly routed, the Fenians pursuing them for two miles when O'Neill ordered a halt. The Canadians were completely demoralized and continued their flight to Port Colborne. The Fenians lost 6 killed and 15 wounded, and the Canadians 23 killed and wounded in all.

The Herald's Buffalo special says General O'Neill with his staff were captured.

TORONTO, June 3-2 A. M.—A dispatch from Waterloo says Colonel Dennis' command, numbering about eighty men, engaged 80 or 100 Fenians. About half-past two O'Neill, ordered the Fenians to charge upon the volunteers with fixed bayonets when the volunteers broke and ran in every direction, throwing away hats, belts, cartridge-boxes, etc. At 3 P. M. the "field of Waterloo" was in possession of the Fenians. Col. Dennis is said to be wounded. Two Fenians were killed, and the British had five or six wounded. Reinforcements for the Fenians have crossed at Frenchman's Creek. The operator at Port Colborne reports a large body of Fenians crossing into Canada.

LATEST.

THE END OF THE FORT ERIE AFFAIR.

BUFFALO, June 3.—The Fenians evacuated Fort Erie last night, and most of them attempted to reach this shore but only a small number succeeded.—About seven hundred were gobbled up by the United States boats guarding the river, and are now prisoners under the guns of the United States steamer Michigan at Black Rock. The Canadian forces, under Colonel Peacock, are now in possession of Fort Erie without a skirmish. The ultimate disposition of the prisoners is uncertain, but the British Minister has been telegraphed to.

Colonel O'Neill and staff are captured. The only Fenians captured by the English appear to be thirty-two pickets, who were left by their friends in the hurry. By order of General Barry all communication is forbidden with the Canada shore. It is reported that a small Fenian force left this neighborhood last night, destination unknown. Those that attempted to reinforce their friends at Fort Erie were prevented by the United States picket boats. We have conversed with some escaped Fenians, and they say, having no artillery, and they positively assert they have had none, and finding the Canadians had Armstrong guns and were closing around them, with no prospect of reinforcement and no supplies, they concluded not to be gobbled up, so they "skedadled" as best they could.

The men were completely worn out, having fought two battles (though the Fort Erie affair they regard as only a skirmish), and have had nothing to eat and no sleep.

GEN. MEADE AT BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, June 3, 2. P. M.—Major-General Meade has just arrived here which fact is considered as a confirmation of the statement that a general invasion along the border is contemplated.

Gen. Meade while here issued a general order giving Gen. Barry full command and authority in this department to make such disposition of troops, and to use all means in his power to preserve neutrality between the United States and Canada.

DETROIT, June 3.—A large number of rifles in the Merchant's despatch warehouse were seized to night by the United States authorities.

General Meade's Order.

Brevet Major General Barry: General orders will be sent you from Headquarters of the Department of the East, assigning you to the command of the District of Ontario, extending from Erie, Pennsylvania, to Oswego, New York, both places included, Headquarters at Buffalo, for advance of the orders and accompanying instruction. I direct you to use the force at your command to preserve the neutrality by preventing the crossing of armed bodies, by cutting off reinforcements or supplies, by seizing all arms, munitions, etc., which you have reason to believe are destined to be used unlawfully; in fine taking all measures precautionary, and otherwise, to prevent violation of law. For this purpose you will move the forces under your command to such points as are threatened, and you will employ vessels, tugs, etc., such as can be procured, for watching the river and lake shore, and taking all such measures as in your judgment the emergency requires. Very Respectfully,

GEO. G. MEADE,
Major General Comd'g.

Official Order from General Grant.

BUFFALO, June 2.—Lieut. General Grant passed west at noon to day. He sent the following telegram to General Meade:

BUFFALO, June 2.—To Maj. General Meade, U. S. A., Philadelphia: Gen. Barry is here. Assign him to the general command from Buffalo to the mouth of the Niagara river.

The State authorities should call out militia on the frontiers to prevent hostile expeditions leaving the United States, and to save private property from destruction by mobs.

U. S. GRANT,
Lieutenant General.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson reported a series of resolutions providing for the adjournment of Congress until Monday next as a token of respect to the memory of Lieutenant General Scott, and also that a committee, composed of members of both Houses, shall attend his funeral, which is to take place at West Point to-day. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. A bill defining the number and regulating the appointment of officers in the United States navy was reported from the Committee on Naval Affairs. The Senate concurred in the report of the Committee of Conference on the amendments to the Pension bill. This bill now goes to the President. The Tax bill was received from the House. It was referred to the Committee on Finance, and five hundred extra copies ordered to be printed. The Senate then resumed the consideration of the joint resolution from the Committee on Reconstruction, the question being on the amendment proposed by Mr. Howard as a substitute for the third section, which disfranchises all persons who have taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in war against the Federal Government. Mr. Doolittle made a speech against the amendment, and proposed several amendments modifying it, which were voted down by a vote of 32 nays to 10 yeas. Mr. Howard's amendment was then adopted—yeas 32, nays 10, a strict party vote. The Senate then adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—A message was received from the President transmitting the reply of Brigadier General Whittlesey, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau in North Carolina, to the report of Generals Steedman and Fullerton, which was referred to the Select Committee on Freedmen. The House concurred in the Senate amendments to the House bill regulating commercial intercourse between the several States. This bill now goes to the President. As passed by Congress, it authorizes any railroad company to transport passengers, mails, freight, &c., from any one State to any other State, and to connect with roads of other States, so as to form continuous lines for transportation of the same to its place of destination. The House then took up the bill authorizing the Cleveland and Mahoning Railroad Company to construct a continuation of their road from Youngstown, Ohio, to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. After a long discussion the bill was passed—yeas 77, nays 41. The Senate joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to appoint a commission to examine a site near Portland, Maine, with reference to its fitness as a fresh water site for iron-clads, was passed. The House concurred in the Senate resolutions in reference to the death of Lieut. Gen. Scott by a unanimous vote. The report of the Committee of Conference on the "Pension" bill was agreed to, and the bill stands as passed by both Houses. The bill for the completion of the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad, between Cumberland, Maryland, and Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, was taken up and passed after a brief debate. The road is to be completed in three years. The bill regulating the pay of the United States army was taken up, and pending a vote was laid aside until Monday. The House then adjourned until Monday next.

—Judge Erskine, in Georgia, has decided that the act of Congress prescribing the lawyers' test oath is unconstitutional.

PUBLIC SPIRIT IN ITALY.—Private letters from Italy describe in glowing terms of admiration, and not without surprise, the unanimous, concentrated, and profound enthusiasm of the whole Italian nation—an enthusiasm too deep for idle show, but rather expressing itself by calm and resolute self-sacrifice, at the near prospect of the final battles for national independence. "War," we read in one letter which has been placed in our hands, "is now for us a certainty—peace an impossibility. It is a question of life or death for the dynasty and for the country. If you could only see what life, what movement, what energy, the settled purpose to have done once for all, with the ruinous uncertainty and precarious incompleteness of the present condition of the country inspires. Every man and every woman seems to say, "Italy expects all her children to do their duty." In another letter from a Florentine gentleman to a friend in England we read: "Ah, my dear friend, if you could see Italy now—how beautiful in spirit, how full of life she is. There are but two ways before us—war against the Austrian, or a civil war; independence or revolution. How I wish those countrymen of yours who cry out against us could see us as we are. No more parties; no more factions; but one single heart and soul and strength. All alike for war. All ready to make sacrifice to the last penny; nay, to the last child. I am not speaking the language of excitement, but the simple truth. From the poorest peasant to the richest noble in the land there is the same will; the same obedience to duty. All are ready to serve in the ranks. To see fathers and mothers accompanying their sons to the offices of enrollment might move the heart of a Boursier."—London Daily News.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—The Radical Disunionists have now boldly declared in favor of negro suffrage. They voted in the House directly in favor of forcing this measure upon the people of the Territories, without consulting their wishes at all on the matter. They have made up the issue at last, and the people know exactly where they stand. The Radical-disunionists, with Geary at their head, are in favor of negroes voting and crowding around the polls with white men; the Democrats, with Clymer at their head, are opposed to negro suffrage, and believe that this government was instituted for the white race. This is the issue in the pending canvass.—Genius of Liberty.

THE Hon. Reverdy Johnson, in a letter to Mr. Hogan, one of the members of the House of Representatives from Missouri, confirms the statement of the latter in regard to the decision of the Supreme Court on the question of the "test oath." Mr. Johnson states that a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court decided that the oath was unconstitutional, and that the reason alleged for not making this decision public at once was mainly owing to the fact that the Judge selected to deliver the opinion had not time before the close of the term to prepare such a one as the importance and gravity of the question required. Mr. Johnson adds that he has no doubt that the opinion will be delivered at the next term of the Court.

GEN. STONEMAN says, in his report of the Memphis riots: "Very few Confederates were mixed up with the rioters, the larger portion being registered voters." Scarcely a person in Tennessee can be a registered voter unless he is "loyal" and is a supporter of old Brownlow and his rascally "legislature." Four-fifths of the bona fide voters have been disfranchised by the Brownlow Disunionists, for their connection with the Confederacy. It appears from Stoneman's report, therefore, that it was the "Southern Unionists" of the Brownlow stripe who prevented the darkies from again "bearing off the palm." This takes much of the "pressure" off the "reconstructed rebels."

Two hundred and thirty-five (235) honorably discharged soldiers of York borough lately enrolled themselves as members of the Clymer Club, at the first meeting. The names were published in the York Gazette. The Harrisburg Telegraph discovers that fifteen are dead and forty are deserters. Strange that the citizens of York were oblivious to these facts until so informed by the Geary Telegraph. Evidently to hear of home the Yorkers must come to Harrisburg. We would not have it understood, however, that lying is the great speciality here.—Patriot & Union.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Cholera, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery!—A cure is warranted by Dr. Tobias' celebrated Venitian Liniment, if used when taken by persons of temperate habits. This medicine has been known in the United States over 20 years. Thousands have used it, and found it never failed to cure any complaint for which it was recommended and all those who first tried it, are now never without it. In the Cholera of 1848, Dr. Tobias attended 40 cases and lost 4, being called in too late to do any good.

Directions.—Take a teaspoonful in a wine-glass of water every half hour for two hours, and rub the abdomen and extremities well with Liniment. To allay the thirst, take a lump of ice in the mouth, about the size of a marble every ten minutes. It is warranted perfectly innocent to take internally. Sold by all druggists, price 40 and 80 cents. Depot, 56 Courtlandt st., New York.

A Single Box of Brandreth's Pills contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world beside; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. E. F. KERR,
Ch'n Dem. Co. Com.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—Wilson P. Mower, son of John Mower, Esq., of this place, was killed a few days ago, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne, and Chicago Railroad, by being jammed between two cars. Mr. Mower held some position on the road and was overseeing the loading of some freight cars, when the accident occurred. His remains were brought to this place for interment, and on Sabbath last were deposited in their last resting place in the Bedford Cemetery. Poor Wils.! we owe his memory more than a mere recital of the unhappy accident which resulted in his untimely death. We knew him well, and always esteemed him for his kindness of heart, his gentle disposition and his faithful friendship. May he rest in peace!

WOODBERRY OIL CO.—The following letter from a friend, dated May 21, brings goods news for those interested in the Woodberry well: "The oil Excitement is up very much. Stocks change hands every day and a great many wells are going down. The Woodberry well is doing very well since the company have got their engine to pump it. The Salt Creek well, No 1, is the best on the Creek, so far. Since the engine is pumping it, it is doing well although not as well as it did. The seed-bag gave way last week, and they did not stop to put a new one in until Saturday evening, when we put one in and are ready to commence this (Monday) morning. I think it will average thirty to forty barrels per day of the best lubricating oil."

ARM BROKEN.—Mr. Frederick Koontz, of Bedford township, had his arm broken a few days ago, by being thrown from his horse.

THE CENTENNARY ANNIVERSARY OF BEDFORD.—As near as we are able to learn, the town of Bedford was one hundred years old, on Monday last, 4th inst. The town was laid out by John Lukens, in the early part of June, 1766. We have seen no record which gives the exact day, but tradition fixes it on the 4th. Our people permitted the centennary anniversary of their town to pass by uncelebrated and unnoted. Perhaps it is as well. Why should we rejoice at any thing's getting old, even if it is a town?

MORRISON HOUSE, HUNTINGDON.—Our enterprising friend, Col. Morrison, formerly of the Broad Top City House, and lately of the Jackson House, Huntingdon, has taken the large hotel immediately opposite the railroad depot in Huntingdon, where he will accommodate all who may give him a call. Col. Morrison is one of the best of landlords and we can recommend his house without the slightest hesitation.

THE Editor of the Canfield, Ohio, Herald, says:—"Wheaton's Itch Ointment.—It has been said that to 'get the itch is no disgrace, but it is disgraceful to keep it.' No one need have the itch forty-eight hours if they will use 'Wheaton's Ointment,' for it is a sure cure! We saw it tried on the persons of several children and adults a few weeks since, and the itching at once ceased, and in two days not an eruption was visible. It is effectual in removing pimples, blotches and especially old sores. We used the Ointment on one of our children, and the effect was magical. The itch, which has been so prevalent about here, has not yielded to the usual remedies for this complaint, and we are glad that a remedy has been discovered that is so effectual and yet so cheap." Read the advertisement.

J. H. HUTTON, of the Boot and Shoe persuasion, requests us to say that he expects to reopen his News and Periodical stand, on Saturday, 19th inst., when he will be pleased to furnish his old friends and customers with the most interesting reading matter in print. He will keep all the publications of the day. Call and see him.

N. B. He still has a few pairs of Shoes left, cheap for cash.

LEG BROKEN.—We regret exceedingly to learn that our old and esteemed friend, Maj. M. McIlwaine, of Union township, had one of his legs broken on Saturday last, by being thrown from his wagon, as he was driving home from St. Clairsville. We hope he may soon recover from the injury.

THE WEAVER HOUSE, ST. CLAIRSVILLE.—We call attention to the card of the Weaver House, St. Clairsville, in our advertising columns. Let the public test the merits of this hotel and be convinced concerning its qualities. Mr. Weaver is an attentive and obliging landlord and "knows how to keep a hotel."

REGULATOR BOXES.—If you want to see some "fancy" boxes, call at Irvine's Regulator, and if you want some shoes more "fancy" still, take a peep within those boxes and you'll be sure to find them. Irvine has the cheapest cigars in town.

GROWTH OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN PENNSYLVANIA.—From the reports of the conventions recently held in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, it appears that over two thousand persons have been confirmed during the past conventional year, besides several new churches built and consecrated.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. J. J. Shoemaker, proprietor of the Bedford Hotel, is renovating the establishment and the old house is beginning to assume an air of freshness that is pleasant to behold. O. E. Shannon, Esq., is also making a splendid residence out of the old Hall building which he has lately purchased.

VALUABLE LANDS FOR SALE.—We direct the attention of all whom it may concern to the advertisement of T. H. & N. J. Lyons, in another column. The lands they offer for sale are very valuable.

PIANO, STOOL AND COVER FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale a Piano, Stool and Cover for $35, or the Piano for $25, and the stool and cover for $10. Any one wishing a bargain, should call very soon.

KEPLER—Departed this life, Saturday, 19th ult., in the 89th year of her age, Mrs. Mary Kepler, widow of the late John Tilgham Kepler, Esq., who was intimately connected with the growth of this city as one of its early and most enterprising merchants. In the death of this venerable lady, we are made to feel that another mother in Israel, and as may be truly said, a nursing mother of the Church, has gone from toil to rest. Pure and dignified in sentiment, feeling and conduct, the deceased was a woman of more than ordinary bearing, and exhibited for a long course of years those shining qualities which gave her an elevated character in all the relations of human life. Early in the communion of the M. E. Church, she remained a consistent member of the same to the latest hour of her earthly existence. Her end was peace; indeed, it was full of holy triumph over death, and of blissful hope in the resurrection of the pious dead. And now she "rests from her labors, and her works do follow her." The deceased was the mother of Rev. Samuel Kepler, of the M. E. Church South, and formerly Pastor of the M. E. Church of Bedford Station.

These tracts will be sold as they are or subdivided to suit purchasers.

The saw mill tract contains a FIRST CLASS SAW MILL, with a never-failing head of water, and is in the midst of a TIMBER REGION unsurpassed for the quality of timber. One other of the tracts contains an enviable site for a TANYARD, with all the advantages of water, and is alongside of Chestnut Ridge, where the resources for Bark are inexhaustible.

100 acres of the land is bottom, mostly covered by large sugar trees. 300 acres are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, and the balance well timbered.

There are THREE DWELLING HOUSES, upon the premises and THREE BARNS, with other outbuildings. The Fruit is choice and in abundance upon some of these tracts. This property lies 12 miles North of Bedford, and in a country noted for its good roads, leading North, South, East and West, to Bedford, Hollidaysburg, Johnstown, and other points, on the Penn'a Central Railroad.

Farmers, Lumbermen, Tanners and Speculators should examine the premises, as these lands will be sold on fair and reasonable terms.

REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCHES,
Made at WALTHAM, Mass.
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of solid plates. No jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—accurate, simple, strong and economical. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "aneres," "lepines" and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refuse of foreign factories—which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make more than half of all the watches sold in the United States, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very highest grade known to chronometry, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

The Spring Quarter of this Institution will open TUESDAY, APRIL 10th, 1866.

This Institution is very pleasantly situated in Friend's Cove, 8 miles from Bedford, the terminus of the Huntingdon and Bedford Rail Road, and 21 miles from Cumberland, a station on the North Central Rail Road. Rainsburg is a small, quiet, and exceedingly healthy town, in the midst of beautiful scenery, and sufficiently removed from the influence of large towns and cities to render it a most desirable location for a Literary Institution. Its inhabitants are moral and religious, and there are few temptations to vice, idleness or dissipation; situated in a rich agricultural section, this Institution for Young Ladies and Gentlemen, is decidedly the cheapest in the country. It is organized on the most approved plan of the best Institutions of the land; its main object is, to impart sound learning. All branches, Scientific, Classical and Ornamental, taught. The mental and moral culture are carefully attended to, and (without sectarian prejudices) a due respect for religion is inculcated both by precept and example. "In things necessary, unity; in things doubtful, liberty; and in all things, charity." For circular and information, Address HUGHES & STEWART,

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.

The ingredients used in compounding Mishler's Herb Bitters are not kept secret by the Proprietor. Send for a circular and you will learn the medical properties of all the articles used in its preparation; also in the manner in which they operate on the system, and much other valuable information. If you are afflicted with disease send for one of Mishler's Herb Bitters Circulars; read it carefully, profit by the hints it contains, and you will be placed on the sure road of recovery.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st. Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation. It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, it is channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it nets on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed in scribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all Kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d. Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's Bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled

EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of inteligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.

1866. MAKE UP YOUR CLUBS.
THE NEW YORK NEWS,
The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,
DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Consititution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of public opinion.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness. Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrines must if he certain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisis in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar...10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

SHRINERS BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.
For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now before the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is Purely Vegetable Compound. It
